

VIP INVITATION

Local families join thousands celebrating National Playgroup Week

Dear

(insert name of your playgroup here) invites you to attend its National Playgroup Week celebration, (insert name of event) at (insert venue) on (insert day and date) at (insert time).

Highlights will include (insert key things happening at your event here).

National Playgroup Week is celebrated by playgroups all over Australia from March 21-27.

Playgroup is low cost, parent-run and gives young children stimulating play opportunities in a social environment. For adults, playgroup is a chance to meet other families going through similar experiences.

National Playgroup Week is a time to recognise the value of playgroups.

Playgroups are the most popular and enduring grass roots movement for families with young children and are an important part of the early childhood experience.

We would love you to come to our event.
