is a roster playgroup session

At roster playgroups parents take turns to be at playgroup to supervise the session while the other parents have regular time out.

Because of the increased responsibility accepted by roster playgroups, they are required to meet guidelines developed in conjunction with the Department of Human Services to ensure the safety and adequate supervision of the children. For a copy of the guidelines phone 1800 171 882 or visit 'Playgroups' at www.playgroup.org.au.

Roster playgroups must complete a Roster Registration form (part one) and a Roster declaration form (part two).
